

Hyatt Auckland

Thursday, 21 October 2004

Welcome reception in the Residence View suite of Alan Ritchie, the CEO of the New Zealand Law Society and dinner hosted by the New Zealand Law Society at the Pinot Function Center.

Friday, 22 October 2004

Conference of Regulatory Officers - joint session

Session One – Paper 1: Self-regulation and the legal profession worldwide: a presentation by Gavin Mackenzie (Bencher, Law Society of Upper Canada) chaired by Patrick Moss, ilace President.

Presentation by CRO (Conference of Regulatory Officers): their experience and challenges with self-regulation chaired by Patrick Moss. Panel discussion - John Cain (Law Institute of Victoria), Larry King (Law Society of the Australian Capital Territory), Alan Ritchie (New Zealand Law Society) and Murray Fox (Queensland Law Society Inc)

Session One – Paper 2: Perspective on the United Kingdom Clementi Report: a presentation by Janet Paraskeva, Law Society of England and Wales chaired by Patrick Moss.

Session One – Paper 3: Perspective from European Common Market Countries: presentation by Ken Murphy, Law Society of Ireland and Jonathan Goldsmith CCBE chaired by Patrick Moss.

Session One – Paper 4: Canadian experience with self-regulation: presentation by Malcolm Heins, Law Society of Upper Canada and Don Thompson, Law Society of Alberta chaired by Patrick Moss.

Session One – Paper 5: Australian experience with self regulation: presentation by Mark Richardson, Law Society of New South Wales and Alison Gaines, Law Society of Western Australia chaired by Patrick Moss.

Session One – Plenary: Roundtable discussion on self-regulation – Where do we go from here? chaired by Douglas Mill of the Law Society of Scotland.

Cocktail function hosted jointly by Kensington Swan and the New Zealand Law Society at the offices of Kensington Swan at the Viaduct Harbour and dinner – dutch style at Kermadec.

Saturday, 23 October 2004

Session Two – Paper 1: Risk Management: Are we managing risk effectively?: a presentation by Peter Carter, Willis Australia Ltd chaired by Patrick Moss.

Session Two – Paper 2: Risk Management: Trust me on the Sunscreen: Seven things (Approx) we already know about risk management: a presentation by John Baily, Law Society of Northern Ireland chaired by Patrick Moss.

Reports from Participants: Roundtable discussion: Presentation on major local, national and international developments chaired by Diane Bourque.

Session Three – Paper 1: CEOs Evaluation – Are they necessary? What is their value?: a presentation by John Hoyles, Canadian Bar Association and Douglas Mill, Law Society of Scotland chaired by Patrick Moss.

Session Three – Paper 2: Compensation of Chief Executive Officers – What is the appropriate approach? How to deal with your board?: a presentation by James Matkin, Canada.

Session Three – Paper 3: Coaching and training CEOs – How to be the best leader possible: a presentation by John Hoyles of the Canadian Bar Association chaired by Patrick Moss.

Session Three – Plenary: Round table discussion on issues that CEOs are afraid to face chaired by Douglas Mill.

lilace's annual meeting:

The elected lilace Committee:

Douglas Mill, John Hoyles, outgoing president - Patrick Moss, Alison Gaines, new president - Diane Bourque and Kenneth Murphy.

Closing dinner at the Cin Cin Restaurant